Part 1: Preliminary Information

“When enough people (a critical mass) think about and truly consider the plausibility of a concept, it becomes reality.”

—Joseph Duda

Preface

Civilizations have come and gone since the beginnings of history. “Why?” may one ask. It could very well be that each lost its value, lost its ability to bring beauty, and to perpetuate peace onto this planet. Mother Earth does not need garbage on her earthly skin. I’d clean my body, too.

This pandemic is a wake-up call to reset the value of humankind on this planet. Nuclear war offers no time for reconsideration or rehabilitation, but pandemics do. For the first time since World War II, has the collective governments of the world face such a challenge so desperate as the covid-19 invasion. In a nutshell, governments can only exist if it has common people. No people, no governments. This pandemic forces governments to wake up. Governments exist to care about human life. There’s no other purpose. When that’s gone, Mother Earth invokes change, as she has a mission. Humanity must concede, otherwise, perish. Over time, she’ll replenish the Garden.

Bringing positive change to the world is possible. Every person matters, especially those who care for their brothers and sisters. The mission of each person, when combined collectively, serves to enhance humankind. We can change the world if united in spirit. Together, we can generate the needed critical mass to overcome many of humanity’s challenges, especially pandemics.

Thus, the purpose and mission of this activation serves to help create a unified field of healthy thoughts and loving emotional energy to help mitigate pandemics and harmful challenges for all people worldwide. For this to occur, we need to reach a critical mass, which equates to a slight percentage of the world’s population to do the bulk of the effort, say about 5-10%, then restoring healthy environments—personal and commercial—would become a reality.

Here are a few facts to ponder. Every person on this planet holds the Key-To-Life: that’s his or her DNA. Science tells us that a cell’s DNA, when unraveled and extended, measures approximately two (2) meters. The average human body has about thirty-seven trillion cells (37,000,000,000,000). Should all the DNA in one person be stretched out, that could wrap around the Earth about two (2) million times. This is how significant each of you are. Light energy produced by the cell’s mitochondrion serves as the cell’s motor. Light acts as a product of the cells. There are over seven (7) billion people on this planet. Imagine the amount of Light produced by humans?

Mother Mary also brings Light to this planet. That's why she has re-appeared on Planet Earth several times as an apparition. She's respected by most people as a Pure Woman, connected to the Holy Spirit, and serves as a faithful messenger for humanity. It shall be through Her Love and Wisdom that the DNA-Induced Immune Response Activation be dispensed globally. On a personal note, ever since I (Robert) was a child, Mother Mary embraced and influenced me to advocate peace. Forthwith, I serve as her messenger to bring healings onto humankind and restore peace and health to all the peoples of the world.

Introduction

A little history regarding how the DNA-Induced Immune Response Activation was developed. In 1996, conversations about generating a DNA Activation Program were taking place. One of the critical elements that caught my attention related to the onslaught of a deadly virus arriving onto this world. As presented to me, it was my mission to develop a DNA Activation Program to fight and eliminate that pending virus.

Over the next 24 years, I devoted much of my time to applying and enhancing the DNA Activation Self-Healing Program. The work consisted of 12 Spirit-driven Narrative Protocols to enlighten individuals to communicate with their DNA and nourish one's divinity better. During this period, my Spiritual Partner and colleague, Zeljka Roksandic, and I traveled worldwide, developing and performing DNA Activation Seminars to over a hundred thousand people that successfully changed many lives. Needless to say, a DNA Activation for a virus was unheeded.

Enter the decade 2020, and the forefront before us is the covid-19 virus. Prompted by Zeljka, the notion of combating a virus reappeared. Together, with Mother Mary and the Holy Spirit, we diligently worked on the development of the DNA-Induced Immune Response Activation. Using intuition, wisdom, and imagery to develop a comprehensive activation, we produced an ethereal healing that parallels medical, biological research.

A consideration arose requiring individual participation as well as a global application. Since it is inappropriate to interfere with an individual's soul destiny, we could not determine what is good or bad for anyone, instead allow the realms of Universal Consciousness to decide for one's Highest Good.

To make sense of the specialized DNA Activation, we had to include a purposeful and convincing approach that had to be pragmatic. To do this, we devised a learning sequence to prepare the participant to properly and compassionately invoke the DNA Activation Process, as follows:

- Soul Bubble Meditation—generates pure space, protection, and helps ground energies
- Divine Orientation—establishes a connection with Source
- Setting the Intent—captures the time and purpose of the Activation
- Commands for Purification—cleanses old energies and lays the foundation for new Life
- Commands for Protection and Empowerment—enhances mental, emotional, and social readiness to receive the powers of the Activation
- Specialized DNA Activation—sets explicitly into motion the precise conditions and directions for healings
- Sealing the Process of Health—instills gratitude for the gifts that made changes possible

Harmful viruses consume and eventually die in what they consume: a never-ending sad process. Your immune system has the design to fight infections, however, its capacity to do so needs modification and strengthening. The purpose of the DNA-Induced Immune Response Activation has been prepared to do that deed. Best to repeat this Activation as often as you feel comfortable, and avoid any expectations, instead learn how to trust the process [Both Long & Short forms of the Activation are provided]. For the sake of humanity, we hope you will share this process.

Health and Peace,

DNA-Induced Immune Response Activation

Part 2:

The Soul Bubble Guided Meditation

(By Robert V Gerard; as of 21 March 2020)

Note: Either sit or stand, as comfortable for you when performing this meditation

The Soul Bubble exercise/meditation offers a way to achieve alpha-theta brain-wave states. It is a cleansing, healing, grounding, and protection meditation.

The Soul Bubble Meditation serves as a powerful tool. The reasons being its unique design to encapsulate the mental, emotional, spiritual, and physical aspects of your Being. It also may provide personal protection from harmful micro-organisms and dysfunctional energies.

The meditation creates a beautiful space in which you can feel your soul and consciousness. The joyful part, you can feel your physical body expand, and the sensation of energy metamorphosis.

1. Sit/stand up with your arms at your sides. Keep your feet apart and comfortably feel secure. Close your eyes, stop thinking, and take several deep breaths.
2. The front of your Soul Bubble begins approximately one arm's length in front of you (about 1 meter). Imagine the outer surface as a translucent Bubble. Now imagine the surface extending around your left side, onto your right side, behind you. Next, create a dome above your head. Now imagine the translucent Soul Bubble extending below you.
3. Sense the shields joining and forming a complete Bubble around you. Feel yourself floating, stay centered in the Bubble, and let everything go.
4. Now, using your imagination, fill the Soul Bubble with your essence, your consciousness, good health, with all your good energy, and with all of who you are. Your inner world has become Divinely defined. Take a gentle breath as you feel secure in a larger Soul Bubble Body.
5. Once the Bubble is filled, take a good deep breath and hold it just for a moment. As you exhale, push the insides of the Soul Bubble out to about two (2) arm's length or several more meters/yards, all around you. Then again fill the soul Bubble with your essence, your consciousness, your good health, and fill it with all your energy of Love. Fill the Bubble with all of who you are.
6. Once filled, take a deep breath, and as you exhale, push the insides of the Soul Bubble out to about three (3) or more arms lengths, or several more meters/yards, all around you. Using your imagination, fill the soul Bubble with your essence, your consciousness, your Love, your beauty, your good health, your dreams and goodness, and all your energy.
7. Take a good, deep breath. Exhale. Take a second-deep breath and hold it just for a moment. As you exhale, push the insides of your Soul Bubble out with all your might, as far as you can imagine all around you.

8. Imagine healing energy from Mother Mary in the form of blue-green colored misty-air surrounding the Bubble.
9. NOW, invite Mother Mary, the Holy Spirit, and Angels to enter your Soul Bubble.
10. At this moment, you have created a Divine Duality; you experienced oneness with Source, expressed your uniqueness, and united your outer heaven with your inner heaven. Hold this feeling of bliss as long as possible. This is the magnitude of your essence on this planet. Enjoy the feelings that activate health and peace within you. This is your sacred space. Remember this always!
11. Now, take a gentle breath, expand your arms outward, imagine embracing your Soul Bubble, and move it upwards to the top of your head. Squeeze and compress your Bubble and push it through the top of your head into your body. Feel your physical body becoming filled with your Soul Bubble's Energy of Life, your essence, good health, and peace.
12. In this moment, let your Soul Bubble's Energy of Life push and purge dysfunctional energy away from your body, and return it to God's Light. Feel this healing process.
13. Now, as you become filled with this loving energy, create the image of a colorful DNA double helix spiral below your feet, and connect your loving energy with the center of the Earth. As you do this, feel that you have grounded with Mother Earth.
14. Take another gentle breath and give thanks to Father-Mother ONE for this healing.
15. Relax for a few minutes. Be at PEACE.

It's good to know that thousands of people worldwide have performed this technique and reportedly loved it. It's great for children, and especially good for seniors.

Health and Peace,
